Profile

The New Zealand China Trade Association (NZCTA) was established in 1981 by a group of leading business leaders enthusiastic about the potential of trade between New Zealand and the People's Republic of China.

Today there are over 200 company and individual members representing a diversity of New Zealand business interests including seasoned traders, merchandise firms, exporters, producer boards, shipping and freight companies, banks and legal firms. The prime objective of the Association is to strengthen trade relations between New Zealand and China.

Benefits of membership

- Provision of practical services for New Zealand organisations engaged in trade with the People's Republic of China.
- Seminars and events to facilitate networking opportunities with guest speakers from Government and other organisations representing our relationships with the People's Republic of China.
- Close relations and regular engagement with New Zealand Trade and Enterprise (NZTE), the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFAT), and the Commercial Offices of the Consulate General of the People's Republic of China.
- New Zealand agent for the world famous Canton Fair.
- Access to Trade Fair information and trade enquiries.
- Networks in China to assist with advice and information.
- Organisation of Trade Missions to China and reception of inward trade delegations from China.
- New interactive website intended to be a prime source of information about China.
- Monthly issue of e-magazine China Now and regular issue of our news bulletin NZCTA Now.
- Fast track issue of visas to business visitors.
- Prestigious biennial trade awards.
