Profile

The New Zealand China Trade Association (NZCTA) was established in 1981 by a group of business leaders enthusiastic about the potential of trade between New Zealand and the People's Republic of China.

Today there are numerous company and individual members representing a diversity of New Zealand business interests including seasoned traders, merchandise firms, exporters, importers, manufacturers, shipping and freight companies, banks, legal firms and other service companies both in NZ and China. The prime objective of the Association is to build bridges and strengthen trade relations between New Zealand and China.

Benefits of Membership

- Provision of practical services for organisations engaged in trade and investment between the People's Republic of China (PRC) and New Zealand
- Seminars and events to facilitate networking opportunities with guest speakers from Government and other organisations representing our relationships with the People's Republic of China.
- Close relations and regular engagement with New Zealand Trade and Enterprise (NZTE), the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFAT), the Consulate General of the People's Republic of China, the Commercial Office of the People's Republic of China Embassy to New Zealand and other New Zealand and China government agencies.
- A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT) for over 30 years, plus a MoU with KEA (Kiwi Expats Abroad) and Export New Zealand gives member status for their events.
- Access to Trade Fair information and trade enquiries, plus the New Zealand agent for the Canton Fair.
- Networks in China to assist with advice and information.
- Organisation of Trade Missions to China and reception of inward trade and investment delegations from China.
- Regular news bulletins promoting upcoming events and items of interest and China Now – a market intelligence update covering business and trade related developments.
- Letters of Invitation (LOI) for fast track issue of visas to business visitors.
- Prestigious biennial NZCTA China Business Awards plus symposiums and training programmes.

Our Mission

To promote and strengthen trade and investment relations between New Zealand and the People's Republic of China
